

Smart system for urban windmill

The system deployed from its radio network placed inside fixtures, allows remote wind power generation and PV management. The system allows serving the production according to needs and demand.

- RemoteData collectingby radio
- Interconnections between equipments
- Intelligent service and storage
- Quiet technology